Chapter 127
Battle Creature Aptom's portrait

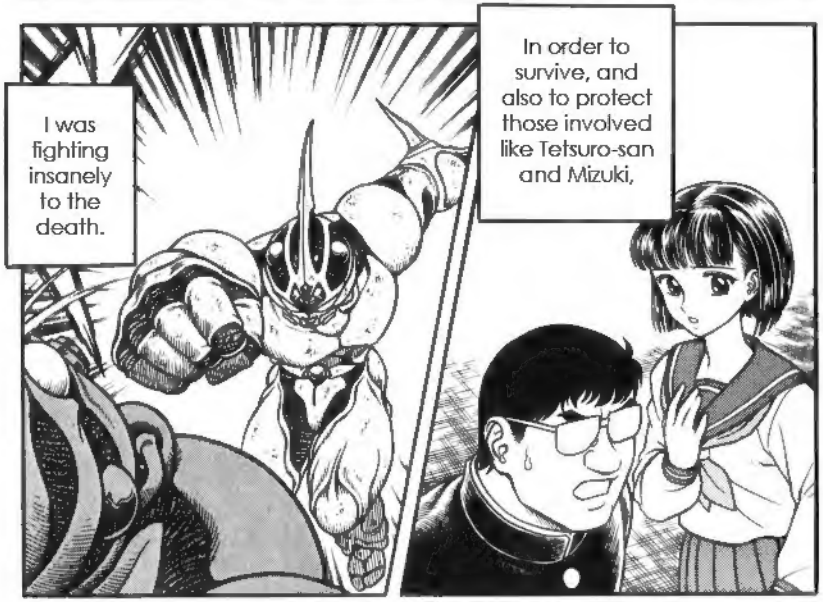
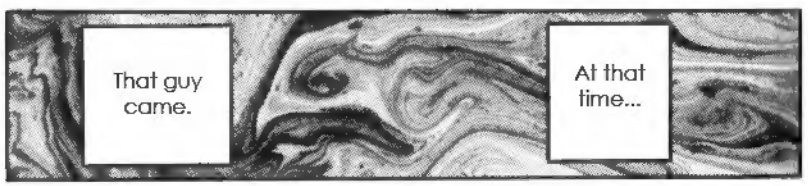
In order to get back the Unit, there was a succesion of attacks from Cronos' men the "Zoanoids".



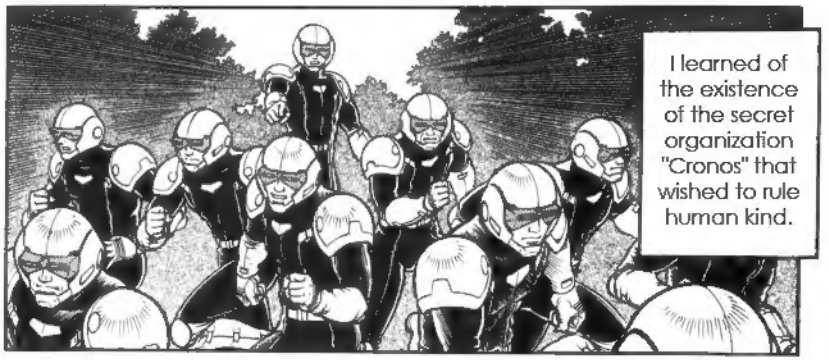
I was fighting insanely to the death.
In order to survive, and also to protect those involved like Tetsuro-san and Mizuki,



That guy came.
At that time...

the world had not yet fallen to the hands of Cronos and I was a high school student.
I..the time that Fukamachi Sho first met Aptom,

That little time-
I got my hands on the "Unit G" by coinci-dence.
I acquired the ability of the Bio Booster body "Guyver".



I learned of the existence of the secret organization "Cronos" that wished to rule human kind.

One of Cronos' highest official supreme commanders, Guyot, called one of the "Lost Numbers" from Relics Point-

That was Aptom.

"Lost Numbers"...

Their life was short and abilities not high. It is rare that these mass produced types have special abilities.

They were those who failed in the processing into new type of Zoanoids that were being developed.

The Lost Numbers Team was a special team that had strange abilities and were expendible.

"Somlum"

Able to vommit "organic glue" that immobilizes the system of his opponent.

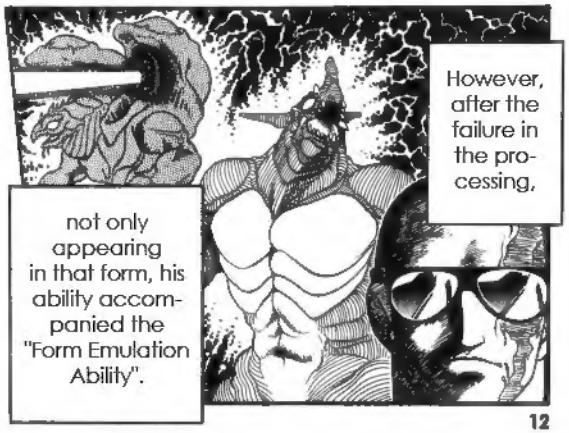
"Dyme"

Turning to liquid form and morhing his surroundings of ground and grass with his own body.

I..it can't be...

And then Aptom is...

This is the point of all of Aptom's existence.



However, after the failure in the processing, not only appearing in that form, his ability accompanied the "Form Emulation Ability".

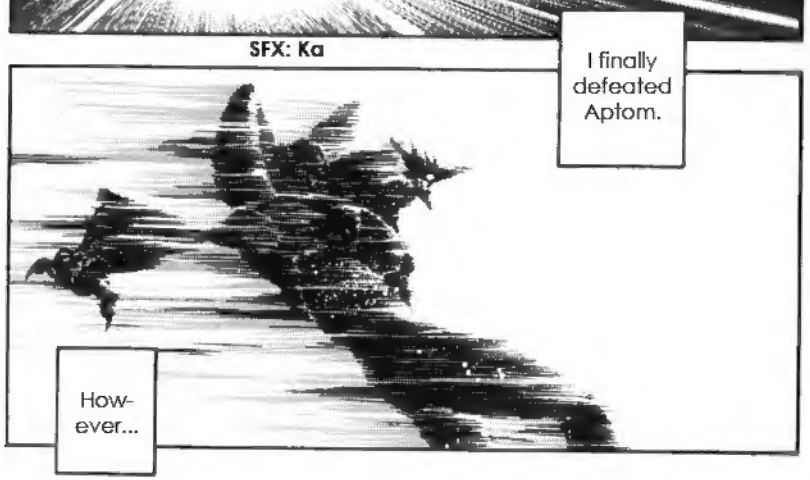
With Balcus' hands, the reprocessed Aptom was...
One of the 12 Holy Commanders, similar to Guyot, who has among the highestknowledge among Cronos Doctor Balcus.

..."Fusing" Zoanoids' gene information as a basis.
This time he had the ability to really "Transform" into any Zoanoid, no matter the kind.
And then...

Has gone beyond being simple co-workers ...
The reckoning of Aptom towards Somlum and Dyme...
The boundaries of the camaraderie of the Lost Numbers...

Aptom had a frightening power up.
The next time we met,
After this, Aptom wanted revenge from me for his friends.
And was fixed at aiming for that.

SFX: Byu byu byu
It was a horrible duel to the death.
SFX: Vu vu vu vu



SFX: Ka
I finally defeated Aptom.
How-ever...

Having joined the char-acteristic of several Zoanoids,
He was able to become a "Composite type".

All the Zoanoids
processed by Cronos have a gene that gives them absolute submission to the highest staff, the "Zoalords".

However... the heavily reprocessed
Aptom had changed to a completely different lifeform for a Zoanoid.

Looks like this body doesn't die
that easily.

He was miraculously

It was not only this. .

And then
Aptom's body had changed.

His

to consume

tion for self

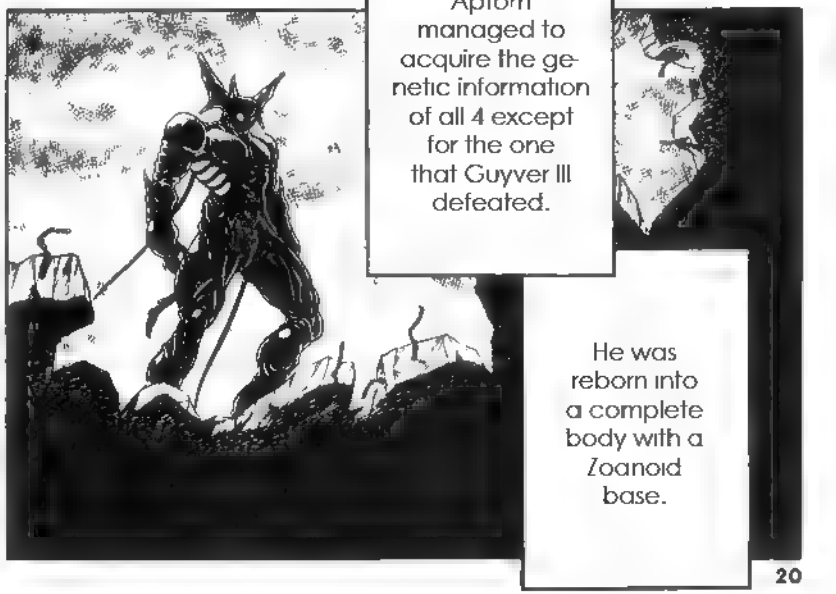
19

The proudest and strongest among all Zoanoids, and Balcus' Elite Team.
His traget was the "Hyper Zoanoid Team 5".



Aptom managed to acquire the genetic information of all 4 except for the one that Guyver III defeated.
He was reborn into a complete body with a Zoanoid base.

At this time, we were in a new situation with a new battle.
The highest staff and the strongest of those processed, the "Cronos 12 Holy Commanders" had finally moved

And so, the chance of meeting with Cronos' supreme leader "Super" Zoalord Alkanphel came Living hidden in the Tokyo that was ruled by Cronos, the world had changed into a place that was ruled by Cronos!

.and continued to sleep for one year.

I was slowly being destroyed

In front of that absolute power,

Inside the "Chrysalis", created by the system of the relic ship,

A new type of equipment, "Gigantic" was born.

Also after my return,

although he attacked me for the sake of revenge for his comrades, it was Aptom that didn't crush the stance that continued to self strengthen but.

From that point on, everytime that I am in trouble, he is there to help us.

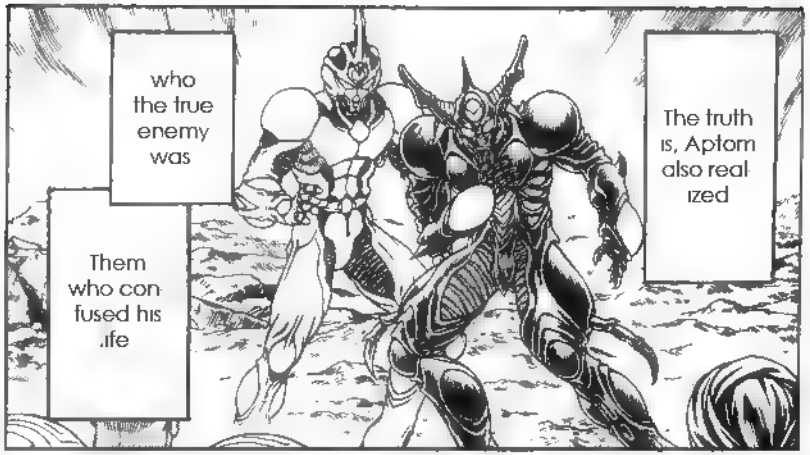
Suprisingly it was Aptom!

The one who was protecting them from being known .

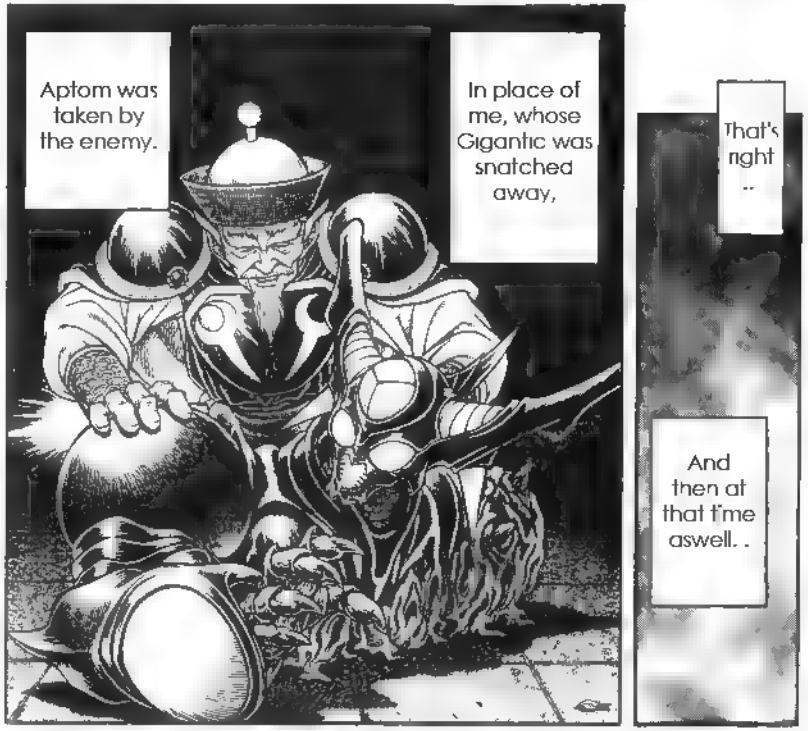
Tetsuro-san and Mizuk. continued to wait, believing in me while my existence was unknown.

That is why ..

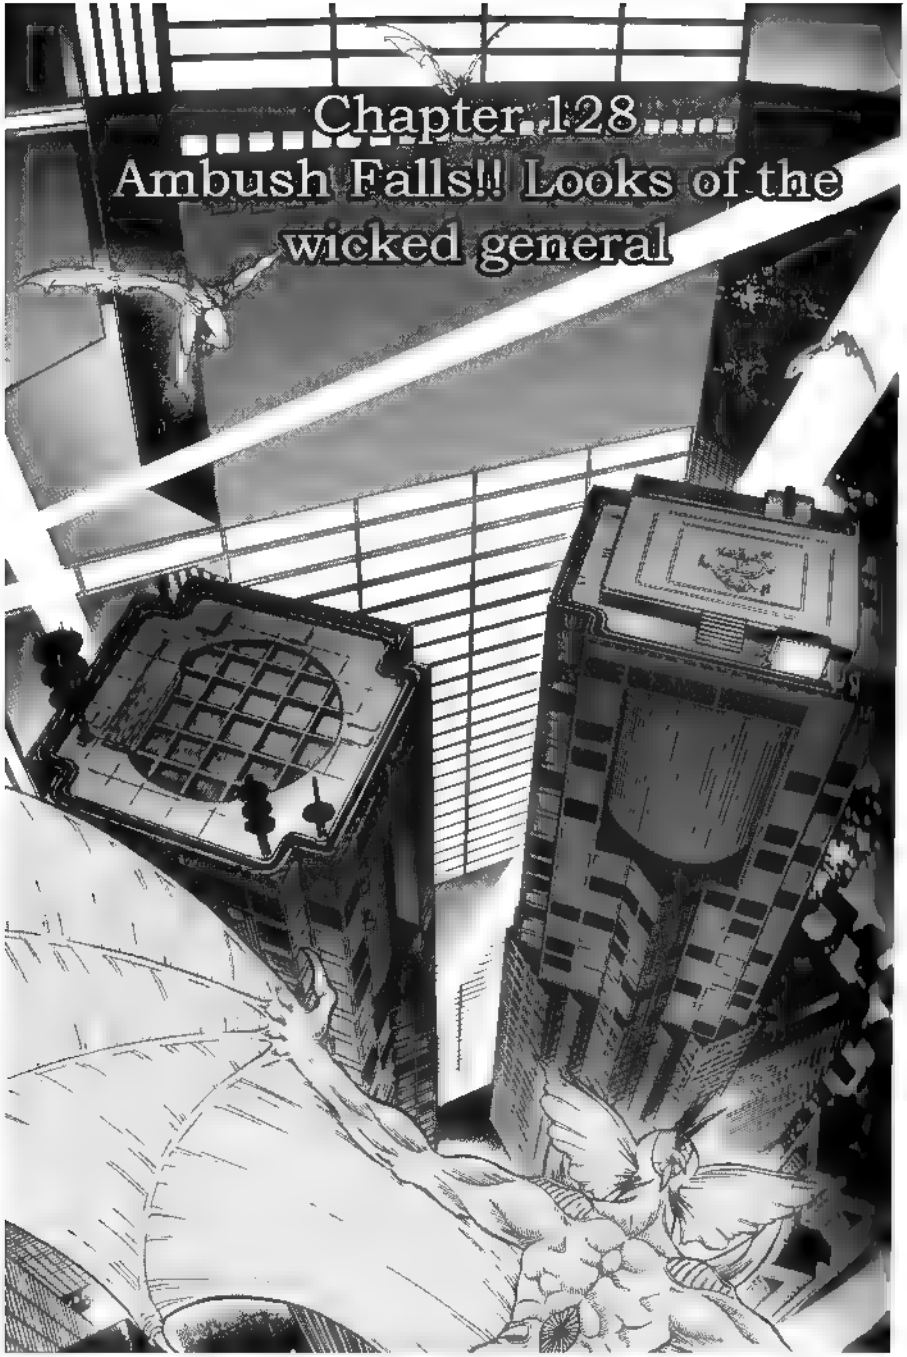
No matter what,
I have to save Aptom from this situation!



who the true enemy was
Them who con fused his life
The truth is, Aptom also real ized



Aptom was taken by the enemy.
In place of me, whose Gigantic was snatched away,
That's right ..
And then at that time aswell. .



Chapter 128

He has finally noticed his mental wave being interrupted

If we destroy everything but the "Control Medal"
Won't he just reform?
Well, don't rush me Jarvil.
It's about time we "Cook" Guyver I .
Will the "Sonic Wave Concentration Exposure" damage it?
That's right, speaking of the "Control Medal" .
SFX. Iii
It will just obstruct it's function for a moment.
They don't have the power to destroy the "Medal" ,
UH ..!?
Aah..
When the waves hit, Sho Fukamachi will experience great pain
That's what I would guess
Naturally ..the "Control Medal" is connected to the brain of the Bio-booster
I see..

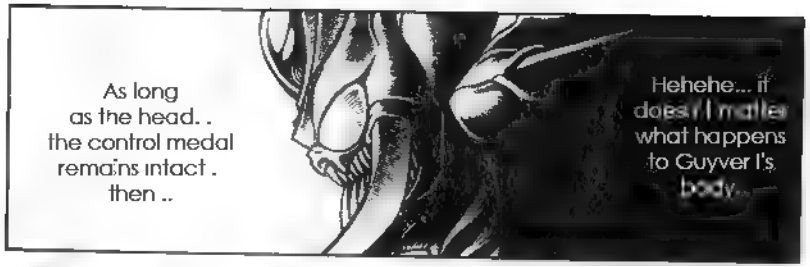
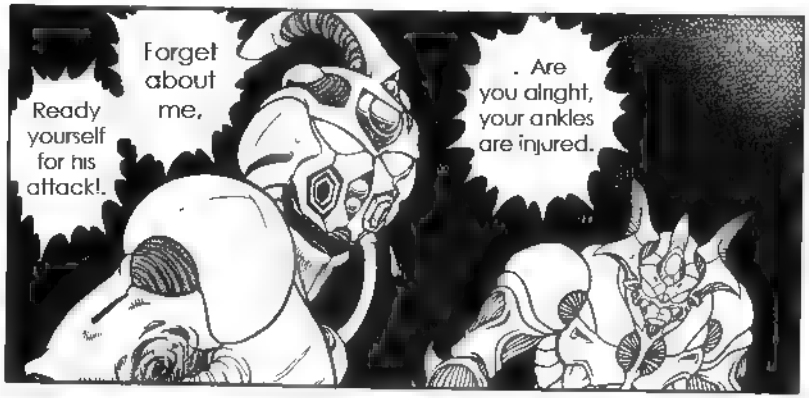
We don't know if the weapon at the right chest of Aptom's body will be used.

Also..



As long as the head.. the control medal remains intact. then ..
Hehehe... if does'nt matter what happens to Guyver I's body...



Ready yourself for his attack!.
Forget about me,

If you get hit by that, even if you are a Guyver, it will surely destroy you!
"High Frequency Spear" .
But..
I can only evade it for so long.

I have to neutralise his High Frequency Spear..
It's danger ous, but I have to get close to him

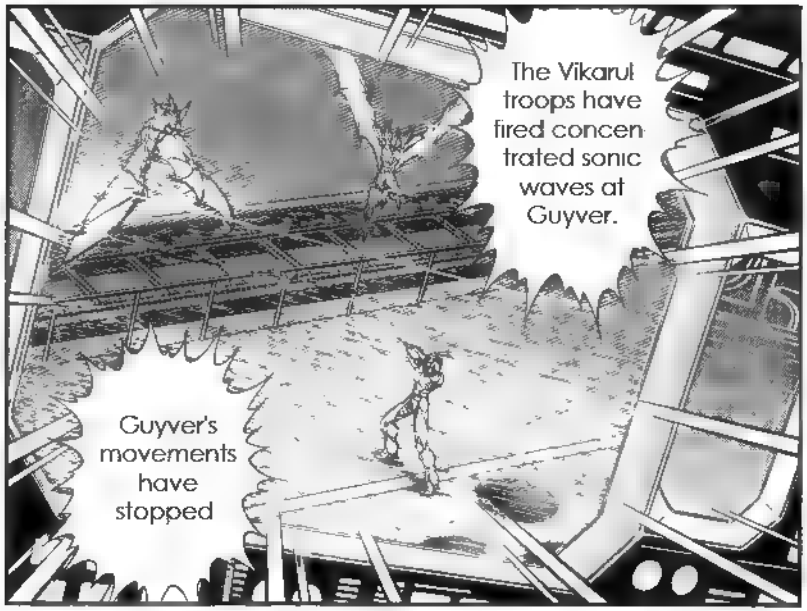
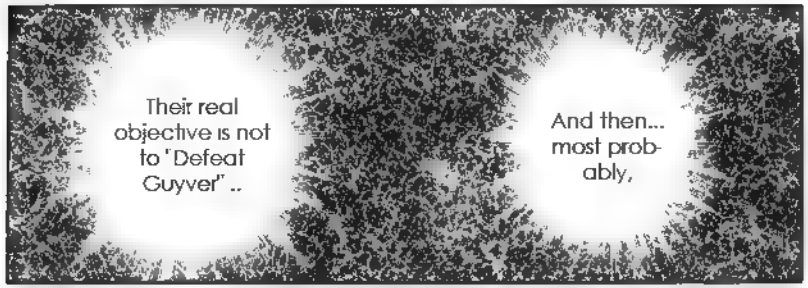
SFX. Bachi
VAAA



The Vikarul troops have fired concentrated sonic waves at Guyver.
Guyver's movements have stopped

.....
The Vikarul have not responded to our calls ..



What kind of mental power controls the Vikarul?
My "Mental Wave" is being interrupted

The only ones capable of this is another Zoalord...

the work of those 3 Holy Commanders!!
There is no mistake, this is

Their real objective is not to "Defeat Guyver" ..
And then... most probably,

But "To acquire Guyver"!

The Guyver is a "Secret" that only we 12 Holy Commanders know about Balcus has already told me.

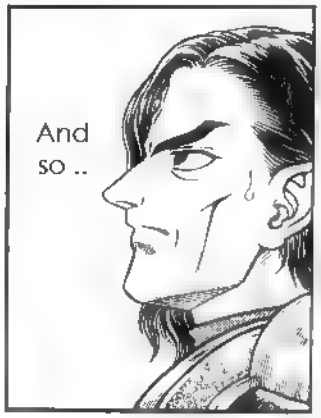
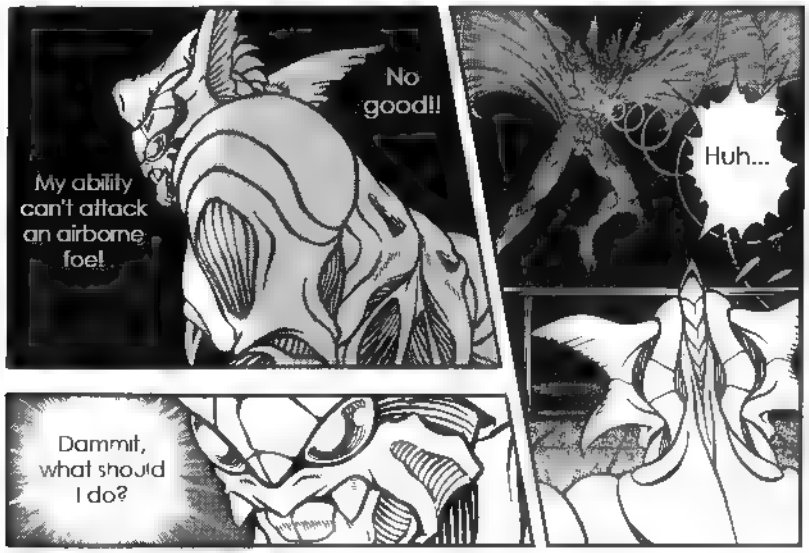
They know of this plan..





No good!!
My ability can't attack an airborne foe!
Huh...
Dammit, what should I do?

SFX: Kyuuuuu

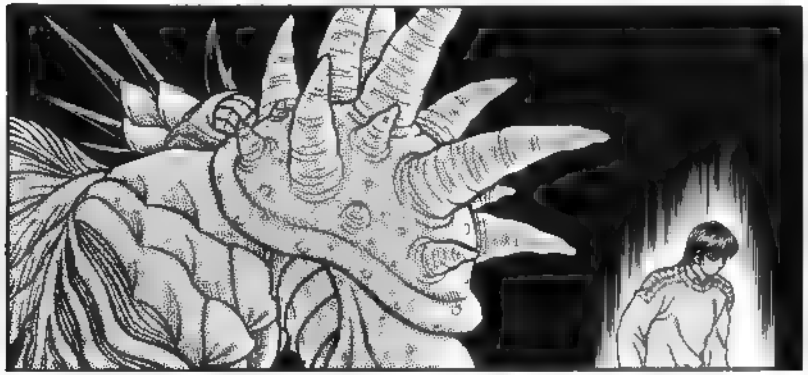
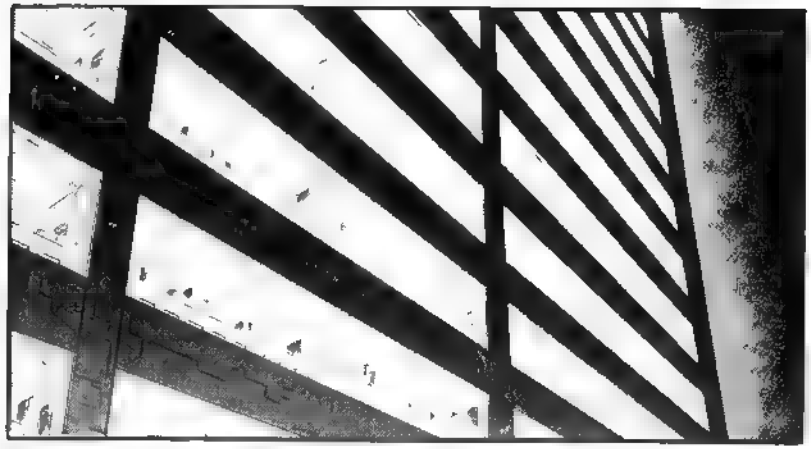
Impos sible!?
the "Bio-Boost" can't be overrid den this easily. .

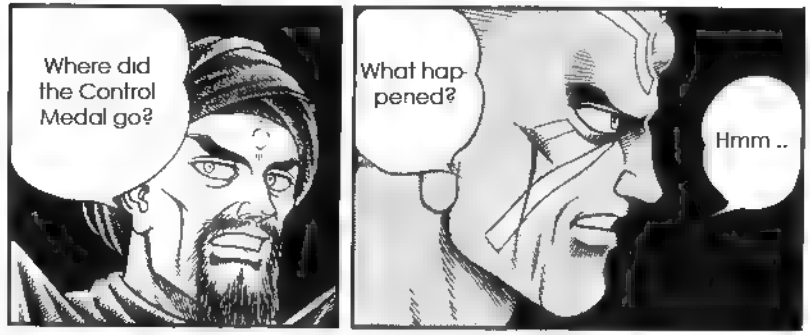


.....

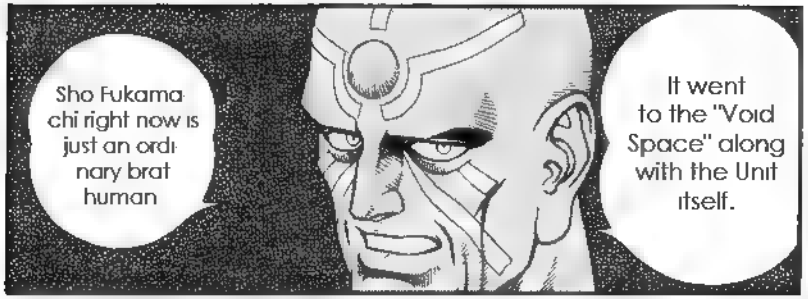
The Guyver withdrew!?



.. This development was not expected



Where did the Control Medal go?
What happened?
Hmm ..



Sho Fukamachi right now is just an ordinary brat human
It went to the "Void Space" along with the Unit itself.

Jarvil.
In the mean time, let us secure that body.

That was close.
If we'd killed that brat we would have lost Guyver I.
The "secrets" that we seek from the Unit would have forever be lost.

SFX: Koo-
